We have Letters from ntinople by Way of Dalmatia, with Advice, e Plague makes extraordinary Havock in that

, June 6. O. S. The Letters from Wal- and Moldavia unanimouſly confirm the ill State Turkiſh Troops, and cannot ſufficiently expreſs the Conſternation which the Turks were ſeized with on the News of the Approach of the Ruſſians, with whom they dread the Neceſſity of coming to Blows. Thoſe Letters add, that the Seraskier of Bender was marched with the greateſt Part of the Troops under his Command towards Bialogrod, having in ſome meaſure abandon'd the Town of Bender; the Preſervation of which, is judg'd to be of more Importance to them than that of Bialogrod.

Warſaw, June 9. O S. The Letters from the Frontiers ſay, that Count Munich's Army, which is enter'd into the Deſart that ſeparates the Ukraine from Beſſarabia, ſeem'd to threaten a March towards Bialogrod, as if it had a Deſign to take that Place; but that however it was believed to be only a Feint to draw the Ottoman Forces that Way, and that it was not doubted, but News would ſoon arrive of that General's facing about again to the Right, in order to march and fall upon Bender. Mean time we hear that the Grand Vizier, who continues at Sophia in Bulgaria, has ſent a great Detachment towards both Bender and Bialogrod, to cover the two Places againſt any Attack by the Ruſſians.

S.* We have Advice, that on the 10th Inſtant the Count de Wallis was detach'd by the Grand Duke of Tuſcany with a Body of Troops to march beforehand towards Orſova, to which Place the Groſs of the Army was immediately to follow. Spies have brought Word, that the Turks have raiſed four Batteries before Orſova, and that they Fire upon the Place with great Fury; but that nevertheleſs they had not done very much Damage as yet. If the Report be true that the Grand Vizier is making long Marches with his Army to join the Forces before Orſova, 'tis likely we ſhall ſoon hear of a bloody Battle.

P. S. Juſt now we hear that the Army Imperial having decamp'd from Temiſwaer on the 10th Inſt. arrived the ſame Day at Moſnitza, from whence it was eight Marches farther to Orſova, and that the Turks had fell'd Trees in the narrow Roads to retard their Paſſage. 'Tis confirm'd, that the Plague makes great Ravage in ſeveral Parts of the Bannat of Temiſwer.

S.* The Pope's Nuncio Extraordinary, who was appointed to accompany the Queen of the Two Sicilies, returned hither this Day, with Advice, that ſhe was arrived at Ponteo, on the Frontiers of the Kingdom of Naples, and that the King Don Carlos, who waited there to receive her in a ſumptuous Booth, no ſooner ſaw her alight from her Coach, but he went to meet the Princeſs, who as the King approach'd, fell on her Knees, but his Majeſty immediately raiſed her up, embrac'd and kiſs'd her; after which they both took Coach again for Gaeta, where they arrived in the Evening, and were welcom'd by a general Salvo of the Cannon from the Place, and from the Veſſels in the Port.

Milan, June 14. O S. The Seizure of the Fiefs in the Tortoneſe by the Piedmonteſe, is become ſuch a ſerious Affair, that the Germans, to the Number of 4 or 5000, are aſſembling in order to form a Camp on the Side of Pavia, and forthwith expect 2000 Horſe, beſides the Troops coming from the Mantuan.

Baſil, June 19. O. S. The Difference betwixt this City and Huningen, not only with reſpect to the Limits, but to the Salmon Fiſhery on the Rhine, is intirely accommodated by the good Offices of the Cardinal de Fleury and Sir Luke Schaub.

Bruſſels, June 26. O. S. We have Advice that the King of France is augmenting the Fortifications of St. Winnoxberg, a little Town two Leagues from Dunkirk; that he is alſo mending the Harbour of Gravelin; and that the Canals threreabouts are ſpeedily to be put into a Condition for Communication with the Sea. This Work takes in all the material of what was publiſhed in the Reigns of King Charles and King James the Second. Wrote

By HENRY CARR, Gent.

And it is worth Obſervation, that all the Writers that appeared in Defence of Popery, not one of them have ventured to reply to this Book any other way than by ſcurrilous and condemning the Author of it, which was done at the King's Bench in the Guildhall of the City of London before Judge Jefferies. To which are added, many curious Obſervations vouch'd by unqueſtionable Authorities, both of Popiſh and Proteſtant Writers. The Whole being diſpoſ'd in a regular, conciſe, and familiar Manner. Adapted for the entertainment of the more judicious Part of Mankind, as well as People of a lower Rank and Capacity may thereby be furniſhed to oppoſe the artful Sophiſtry of Prieſts and Jeſuits. They are here trac'd thro' the darkeſt and moſt intricate Mazes that Myſtery of Iniquity, and the daring Inſolence of the Biſhops of Rome, in depoſing Emperors and Kings at their Pleaſure; with a brief Account of the Lives of all the Popes, the Celibacy of the Clergy, of their Maſſes, their Canons, Decrees, Schiſms, Saints, Croſſes, Crucifixes, Relicks, Images, Pilgrimages, Auricular Confeſſion, Peter-Pence, Indulgencies, Traditions, Rule of Faith, Scripture, the Expurgatorious, Viſible Church, Election of Popes and Cardinals, Kiſſing the Popes Feet, Pope Joan, Thomas a Becket, Tranſubſtantiation, Purgatory, Curſes and Cruelties of Wickliffe, Huſs, Sir John Oldcaſtle, Luther, and many Thouſands of other faithful Martyrs; together with a true Relation of all the other horrible and deteſtable Idolatries and Cruelties practiſed by the Church of Rome, attempted and carried on in Great Britain and Ireland, as well as in foreign Countries, are all treated of at large with Cuts and Plates.

To which is added,

An Abridgment of the Hiſtory of the Reformation, and the Perſecution in Queen Mary's Reign, chiefly extracted from Thuanus, Fox, Sleidan, Burnet, Stryp, and others. By the Authors of the Hiſtory of Popery.

It is to be taken at any Seaſon of the Year, but eſpecially in the Spring and Fall; is ſo very agreeable to Young and Old. Children take it without Trouble, a few Drops for Doſes; and ſo gentle, that it weakens not the moſt Infant. For it is a ſafe and effectual Alterative, to be taken in a leſs Doſe than where Purging is neceſſary; and the excellence inherent in this Medicine, which is a ſingular Property well known to the Learned, to be in ſome Cathartick Medicines.

It is in particular,

A Certain and infallible Cure for the SCURVY, tho' of the longeſt Standing, and attended with the moſt aggravated Circumſtances (a Diſtemper ſo common to Engliſh People, that not one in a thouſand is wholly exempt from it, and great Numbers are ſorely afflicted with it) being a cordial Elixir, peculiarly adapted to that Diſeaſe in all its Forms of appearing, from the ſlighteſt itching Humour in the Blood, to its utmoſt or laſt Efforts on the Nature.

For it is a true Specifick Cordial, that perfectly cures the Diſtemper by gentle Evacuation, by Stool and Urine, the only ſure and effectual Way perfectly to cure the Scurvy, and prevent Relapſes (notwithſtanding what may be ſaid to the contrary) the Truth of which is witneſſed to daily, by many Thouſands that have taken this Medicine. It ſo powerfully rectifies the Blood and Jnices, that ſcrophulous Caſes are alſo ſpeedily cured by it; and all Spots, Blotches, Pimples, &c. on the Skin, are quickly and entirely taken off, the Patients made lively and briſk, many chronick Diſeaſes perfected, and a due State of Health ſecured.

It removes all Pain from the Stomach, helps Digeſtion, opens Obſtructions, and is peculiarly ſerviceable to Maids inclined to, or troubled with the Green Sickneſs. 'Tis the beſt Medicine in the World to deſtroy Worms in Children or grown People, and prevent their Return; for it ſcours away all the ropy, viſcid Humours which breed them in their Bowels. It is ſo well adapted to all Conſtitutions, that it is deſervedly eſteemed both in City and Country, the moſt general Family Medicine that ever was known to preſerve Health, and hinders no Buſineſs or Recreation.

Good Allowance is given Wholeſale by Mr. King for ready Money to Country Shopkeepers, &c. to ſell again. This Medicine will keep many Years in any Climate.

The Directions given with it are large and full.
